Brain [sic] M Cogan

I, Gustavo Rodríguez, ID 30692510, greet you with the utmost respect to let you know that I have known Mr. Genaro Garcia Luna since March, 2024. From the very first day I met him he has been very helpful and has offered his assistance to the fellow inmates, as well as has helped them with classes to get ready for the GED test and all other programs offered to us at the facilities of the MDC, Brooklyn. He also encourages many fellow inmates to get trained, to continue to study, to read and to practice sports; he usually gives us very informative talks, as he has a great deal of knowledge of various subjects, which is particularly helpful to the fellow inmates, especially in the situation in which we find ourselves. I have never seen him violate any of the institution's rules; on the contrary, he motivates the fellow inmates to go on and abide by the rules required of us by the institution.

I bid you farewell with the utmost respect and hope that these lines may help to reflect what Mr. Genaro Garcia Luna represents among the fellow inmates at this institution, the MDC, Brooklyn.

My name is Rehinner Montoya García, inmate # 65799510. I have known Mr. Garcia Luna Genaro for a very few months but this has been sufficient, Honorable Judge, to feel a great deal of respect and admiration for that man.

Your Honor, Mr. Genaro has devoted his time to sharing his great knowledge with each and every one of us, without any qualms or compensation. He has helped us with our programs and GED studies, so that I and many of my fellow inmates have successfully completed it.

Honorable Judge, during this horrible time in prison and throughout the months I have spent in this building, the MDC, Brooklyn, he has been a very important and motivating individual, who has taught us that things are possible and “yes, we can” achieve it through study.

Your Honor, Brian M. Cogan, I have never seen an individual champion a cause so much, knowing that he would jeopardize his freedom, his home, his family.

Honorable Judge, it is a great pleasure to write to you and to try to contribute on behalf of our fellow inmate, albeit by this brief letter, thus thanking him a little for everything he has done for us.

Thank you very much for your attention. God bless you.

Your Honor,

I take the liberty to write to you in reference to Mr. Genaro Garcia Luna.

I had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Garcia Luna upon my arrival at MDC Brooklyn 4 months ago. Since then, we shared long conversations with him and discovered a well educated, gentle, generous person always available to listen to others showing empathy and moral support when we most need it. Also, thanks to Mr. Garcia Luna I passed my GED exam.

I can only hope that Your Honor will take this letter into consideration when sentencing Mr. Garcia Luna.

I remain at your entire service for any additional information.

Yours sincerely,

I, Anthony Pangallo, am writing this letter on behalf of Genaro Garcia Luna.

Unfortunately I have been doing this prison thing for too long. But in that time I learned and observed a lot. When you sit back and watch people, you tend to find it easy to judge somebody and see that persons true character.

I first met Genaro in June 2023. Each morning I would see him with a group of people around him and I got curious why all these people were so concentrated on him. Then I realized it wasn't a regular group of people. Some mornings were Spanish speaking inmates, others were English speaking inmates. And these were inmates he was tutoring. When he would finish tutoring, I would hear him called to the office then disappear. When I started working in the library I learned where he went after tutoring our unit. He would be called to the library to tutor some more.

In my situation the prison was unable to verify my high school diploma and recommended I take the GED so I can work in certain places so I agreed. I told Genaro my situation and I assumed since I already graduated high school that it would be easy but Genaro went out of his way to get a practice test and sat down with me. I realized I forgot a lot in over 20 years so he helped me and I can honestly say I passed because of him. I tried to pay him for his time but he refused. He genuinely helps people out of the goodness of his heart.

Genaro not only works on bettering himself each day, but he helps others try to be better also. And that is extremely rare, especially when it is someone that does not want anything in return.

It is very easy for inmates to see who deserves to be here, who should get more time, and who doesn't belong. Genaro has never once claimed innocence or denied responsibility. But in my opinion from spending time with him every day, Genaro Garcia Luna does not belong here. Your honor, I hope you can consider this and sentence Genaro to the minimum time possible. Genaro is a very positive and motivated person and I feel he can do more good outside with his family than in here. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

Anthony Pangallo 62645-510

Dear Honorable Judge Brian M. Cogan

I am writing this letter on behalf of Genaro Garcia Luna, whose subtle and random acts of kindness have impacted my life in an extraordinary way. By the way, my name is Shawn Chappelle. Shawn Chappelle

Last year I've endured a very painful and pivotal divorce. My mental health was severely affected and I was secluding myself from others. Mr. Luna noticed this and considering I am the laundry porter here and is usually upbeat and social, he asked me about my affairs and I confided in him, to an extent, the nastiness and bitter taste of divorce. The advice he gave me was simply not to stress things beyond my control, however, Garcia Luna consistently checked on me and knowing how I loved chocolate would supplement his advice with a candy bar treat. That means a lot in here Your Honor.

I've been around Garcia Luna for two years and have watched him facilitate G.E.D. classes for both Spanish and English speaking Adults in Custody. Mr. Luna is simply a gentle man. Very kind and considerate. Well mannered and balanced. I would highly recommend that Genaro Garcia Luna be the recipient of your Honor's mercy and leniency.

My Name is DIMEL HICKMAN, I would like to write about a person i met name Genaro Garcia Luna who became a good friend of mine. Even though we've met due to our circumstances (Jail). Not all people you meet at bad places are even bad. Which in truth i can say about my friend Luna being one of the good people just at a bad place. He's one person that keeps things peaceful. When someone feeling down he will stop what he's doing to speak to them. I know family is very important to him. We spoke about that on numerous occasions. I know he cares about humanity overall. He never selfish, but selfless he do more for people than people do for him. I never wrote a support for anybody. I took my time out my day because my friend that i met at my lowest deserves another chance of freedom. to be home with his family sooner than later. He's helped alot of people get their GED and get college credits in here. He's a good man, I asked you Honorable Judge (BRIAN M COGAN) to please show leniency to my friend GENARO GARCIA LUNA thank you.

Honorable Juez Brian M. Cogan.

Otra de las cosas que le puedo decir es que el señor Genaro Luna siempre todo el tiempo nos inculca buenos valores nos guía y nos da buenos consejos.

Y para terminar no me queda más que decirle que si me ponga a decirle todas y cada una de las cosas buenas que le achó al señor Genaro Luna con nosotros y muchas personas no termino de escribir esta carta mi nombre es Jay Cardenas y me encuentro en MDC, muchos gracias

Honorable Judge Cogan,

My name is Allen Yu. I am a small business owner here in New York, specializing in construction and development. I am also in custody at MDC Brooklyn in the same unit as Genaro Garcia Luna. I've known Genaro for about a year and a half now, meeting him in April 2023. Genaro is someone that I'm proud to call a friend. I respect and admire Genaro, not because of his accolades and success in the world, but because he is a man who genuinely wants to help and better others. During the high-stress process of my case and trial, Genaro was someone who helped a lot in many aspects. He helped me take my mind off things, which I saw as a very important part of fighting my case. He teaches a GED class at MDC, in both English and Spanish, and he has also been teaching me Spanish since we met. Teaching isn't just something to do for Genaro, it's his way of bringing people upward. Since I've known him, he has always provided positive energy and encourages his fellow people to make the most of their time, whether they be incarcerated or not. He's always willing to listen and help when possible. Genaro in my opinion, is the definition of a good man. He has never shown me anything other than that, and I'm very thankful that I met him.

Sincerely,

Allen Yu
